

Bassenian Lagoni is an award-winning planning, architecture and interior design firm involved in projects around the globe. The expertise of its talented staff encompasses the range of disciplines: large scale master planning, site specific planning, mixed-use development, hospitality, commercial, retail and housing in all its forms. The firm has published three best-selling books on residential architecture.

Bassenian Lagoni is currently seeking candidates for the position:

Architectural Land Planner

Responsibilities:

- Create community site plans, including large-scale international master planned communities, suburban districts and urban infill
- Create detailed exhibits supporting the overall community design
- Create PowerPoint presentation packages of proposed communities
- Knowledge of current residential product types and associated densities

Qualifications:

- 3 to 5 years of directly-related work experience.
- Professional degree required – Bachelor's degree in Architecture or Planning.
- International land planning experience preferred.
- Proficient in AutoCAD, SketchUp, Photoshop, PowerPoint and Excel.
- Strong communicator able to present ideas clearly to clients.

Please send a resume and portfolio to hr@bassenianlagoni.com