The Western Riverside Council of Governments (WRCOG) seeks an interested and qualified person for an exciting position!

POSITION: HOUSING TRUST PROGRAM MANAGER

JOB SUMMARY:

Under the direction of the WRCOG Director of Transportation & Planning, the Housing Trust Program Manager is responsible for day-to-day operational components related to the development of a Regional Housing Trust Fund for Western Riverside County. This position requires project management skills and in-depth knowledge of affordable housing, federal, and state funding grants and sources. This position will provide technical support for securing initial funds to provide the Housing Trust with a directed revenue source.

EXAMPLES OF DUTIES / FUNCTIONS:

Management reserves the right to add, modify, change, or rescind the work assignments of different positions and to make reasonable accommodations so that qualified employees can perform the essential functions of the job.

Under general supervision, duties of the Program Manager may include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Provide support for the formation and operation of the Western Riverside County Regional Housing Trust.
- Prepare applications and proposals to various private and public funding agencies for acquisition, predevelopment, construction, and permanent financing.
- Establish relationships with the private sector to create and foster positive relationships along with Community Based Organizations (CBOs), city departments, residents, elected officials, and other stakeholders.
- Support the identification of potential projects and programs that provide homeless, extremely low, very low, and low-income housing for the WRCOG subregion.
- Represent the Housing Trust in local and regional partnerships.
- Develop non-Trust sources of financial support for Trust operations, Trust-supported projects, Trust-formulated affordable housing policies, and endowments for the Housing Trust Fund.
- Provide technical assistance and expertise on affordable housing grant programs.
- Attend City Council meetings and take necessary action regarding Council agenda items.
- Make formal presentations to city staff, City Council, outside organizations, and businesses, as necessary.
- Other related duties and responsibilities as may be needed and defined by the Director of Transportation & Planning.

The preceding functions have been provided as examples of the types of work performed by employees assigned to this job classification. Management reserves the right to add, modify, change or rescind the work assignments of different positions and to make reasonable accommodations so that qualified employees can perform the essential functions of the job.
SUPERVISION RECEIVED AND EXERCISED:

The Program Manager will receive administrative, policy, and technical direction from the Director of Transportation & Planning. The Program Manager may supervise analysts, interns, and temporary employees of WRCOG at times.

CLASS CHARACTERISTICS:

ABOUT WRCOG:

Established in 1991, WRCOG is a Joint Powers Authority and serves one of the fastest growing areas in the State of California and the United States. Today, its 18 member cities and the unincorporated County of Riverside are home to 2 million people, and some 800,000 will join us by the year 2035. In addition to the 19 member jurisdictions, the Eastern Municipal Water District, Western Municipal Water District, and the Riverside County Superintendent of Schools are members of the Agency.

Recognizing that many issues related to growth are not constrained by city or county boundaries, WRCOG focuses on regional matters important to our future. By working together through its committee structure and utilizing existing resources, WRCOG is cost-effective by reducing duplication of effort and sharing information, enabling strong advocacy and strengthening Western Riverside County’s standing in southern California and the state. WRCOG’s program areas are varied and diverse, and include transportation, air quality, solid waste, housing, environment, energy, economy, growth, and sustainability. WRCOG administers and operates two other Joint Powers Authorities; Western Community Energy and the Riverside County Habitat Conservation Authority.
