

Planning, Design
& Construction

SHAPE THE FUTURE OF OUR CAMPUS

JOIN OUR TEAM AS AN ASSISTANT CAMPUS PLANNER

 RIVERSIDE, CALIFORNIA

Make an impact.
Plan for tomorrow.

ABOUT THE ROLE

Under general supervision of the Director of Campus Planning, the Assistant Campus Planner performs professional analytical work in support of routine studies and long-range planning. You'll contribute to the future of UCR by providing data-driven insights, supporting capital and environmental planning initiatives, and collaborating across campus.

WHAT YOU'LL DO

ANALYZE & REPORT

Collect, organize, analyze, and present data to support planning studies and long-range planning efforts.

SUPPORT PLANNING PROJECTS

Assist higher-level planners and the Director with project planning related to capital projects, physical planning, and environmental planning.

WORK ON MEANINGFUL PROJECTS

Contribute to routine capital projects and environmental analyses.

COLLABORATE & ENGAGE

Participate in collaborative building and program planning through committees and workshops.

IMPROVE & INNOVATE

Assess existing planning processes and practices and recommend improvements.

DEVELOP & PREPARE

Develop planning analyses related to UCR's physical and capital development and prepare program/project documents and funding proposals.

COMPETITIVE SALARY

Full Salary Range

$68,500 – $121,900
annually

Expected Pay Scale

Up to $95,000
annually

We base salary offers on a variety of considerations, such as education, licensure and certifications, experience, and other business and organizational needs.

READY TO BUILD WHAT'S NEXT?

Apply today and be part of the team planning a vibrant, sustainable future for UCR.

PRIORITY DEADLINE JULY 09, 2026

jobsportal.ucr.edu/jobs/37499252

UCR IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER.